CHAPTER C-5.1

CHILD PROTECTION ACT

WHEREAS children are entitled to protection from abuse and neglect; Preamble
AND WHEREAS children have basic rights and fundamental freedoms no less than those of adults, and a right to special safeguards and assistance in the preservation of those rights and freedoms;
AND WHEREAS parents have the right and responsibility for the care and supervision of their children, and children should only be removed from that care and supervision when other measures have failed or are inappropriate;
AND WHEREAS the preservation of the cultural, racial, linguistic and religious heritage of a child promotes the healthy development of the child;
AND WHEREAS children are entitled, no less than adults, based on their developmental capacity, to be heard in the course of and to participate in the processes that lead to decisions that affect them;
AND WHEREAS the rights of children, families and individuals are guaranteed by the rule of law, intervention into the affairs of individuals and families should be governed by law so as to protect those rights and preserve the autonomy and integrity of the family wherever possible;
AND WHEREAS the developmental needs of children require timely and relevant decision making consistent with their stage of development;
AND WHEREAS children have a concept of time and developmental capacity that is different from that of adults, and services provided and proceedings taken pursuant to this Act should endeavour to respect the sense of time of a child;
AND WHEREAS children should be provided for, as nearly as possible as if they were in the care and protection of prudent and conscientious parents, when it is necessary to remove them from the care and supervision of their parents;
AND WHEREAS the prevention of abuse and neglect of children is a responsibility shared by the family, community and the province;

ASSESSMENT AND INVESTIGATION

Assessment

11. (1) Where a report has been made pursuant to section 10, or where it appears to the Director that a child may be in need of protection, or where a parent or child requests an assessment, the Director shall make an assessment of the circumstances affecting the child, regardless of the consent of any person, and the Director may determine that

- (a) no further action is required;
 - (b) a fuller investigation of the circumstances of the child should be taken pursuant to section 12;
 - (c) referrals should be made to community resources;
 - (d) apprehension of the child is necessary;
 - (e) an application under section 29 is necessary to protect the child;
- or
- (f) the person who made the report may be advised that the information provided in respect of the report does not meet the eligibility criteria for an investigation under this Act.

Subsequent requests

(2) Nothing in this section prevents the Director from determining that any requests for investigation are without foundation. 2000(2nd),c.3,s.11; 2010,c.28,s.12.

Investigation of circumstances

12. (1) Where the Director has reasonable grounds to believe that a child may be in need of protection, the Director may, regardless of the consent of any person, carry out an investigation of the circumstances and condition of the child to determine whether the child is in need of protection.

Investigation criteria

(2) An investigation by the Director may include an analysis of medical, health, social, residential, educational, emotional, economic, and other factors affecting the life of the child.

Powers of Director, investigation

(3) Notwithstanding any other Act, in conducting an investigation the Director may, without consent,

- (a) visit the residence of the child and other places frequented by the child;
- (b) transport the child to a place considered by the Director to be appropriate;
- (c) interview and examine the child;

- (d) interview the parent of the child;
- (e) interview persons who care for the child and persons who have opportunities to observe the child;
- (f) interview persons who provide health, social, educational or other services to the child or to the parent of the child;
- (g) require information to be provided to the Director from medical, health, social, educational and other service records concerning the child and the parent;
- (h) cause an examination to be made of the physical, mental and emotional health and development of the child;
- (i) request the parent of the child to undergo an examination of physical, mental and emotional health or other assessment related to parenting of the child;
- (j) require information to be provided about past parenting by individuals; and
- (k) consult such other persons and gather such other evidence as may be necessary to complete the investigation.

(3.1) Where the child who is the subject of an investigation is an aboriginal child and a registered member of a band, the Director shall notify a designated representative of the band that the Director is conducting the investigation.

Notice to
representative

(3.2) Where the Director believes that the child who is the subject of an investigation is an aboriginal child who is entitled to be registered as a member of a band, the Director shall give notice that the investigation is taking place to a designated representative of the band that has been identified by

Identification of designated representative

- (a) the child, if the child is 12 years old or older; or
- (b) the parent of the child, if the child is less than 12 years old.

(4) Upon the application of the Director, the court may order any person

Order cooperation

- (a) to provide information to the Director;
- (b) to allow the Director access to a person, place or record; or
- (c) to cooperate with an investigation by the Director,

under this section.

(5) Subject to subsection (6) and the regulations, the Director shall make reasonable efforts to give a general report of the results of an investigation to

Report of investigation

- (a) the parent of the child, who is the subject of the investigation; and
- (b) the child who is the subject of the investigation, if the child is at least 12 years old and apparently capable of understanding the circumstances of the investigation.

Report not required, where

(6) A report is not required pursuant to subsection (5) where

- (a) the Director has reasonable grounds to believe that such a report would endanger the safety of the child or any other person; or
- (b) a criminal investigation related to the matter has been initiated or is likely to occur. 2000(2nd),c.3,s.12; 2010,c.28,s.13.

PROVISION OF CHILD PROTECTION SERVICES

Agreement for child protection services

13. (1) Where the Director concludes, after an investigation, that a child is in need of protection, the Director may offer child protection services to the parent.

Idem

(2) The Director may, following an investigation, enter into an agreement with a child for the provision of child protection services in respect of the child, independent of the parent of the child, where

- (a) the child is at least 16 years old and is apparently capable of understanding the agreement; and
- (b) either
 - (i) the parent of the child is unavailable to consent, despite reasonable efforts by the Director to make contact with the parent,
 - (ii) consultation with the child and the parent indicates that serious difficulties exist between them, making it impracticable to make an agreement with the parent for the benefit of the child,
 - (iii) the child no longer lives with the parent, or
 - (iv) the Director determines that the involvement of the parent would likely be harmful to the best interests of the child.

Term of agreement

(3) The initial term of an agreement for the provision of child protection services in respect of a child shall not exceed six months where the agreement is entered into by the Director with

- (a) a parent of the child; or
- (b) a child who is at least 16 years old.

Renewal of agreement, additional terms

(4) The Director may renew an agreement for the provision of child protection services in respect of a child who is less than 16 years old for additional terms which do not collectively exceed a maximum of 12 months.

Additional terms for child over 16 years

(5) An agreement for child protection services in respect of a child over the age of 16 years may be renewed for additional terms until the child reaches the age of 18 years.

Child not to be compelled to receive child protection services

(6) Notwithstanding subsection (2), where

- (a) the parent of a child in need of protection refuses to consent to the provision of child protection services to the child; and
- (b) the child is at least 16 years old,

the child shall not be compelled to receive child protection services if the child is apparently capable of understanding an agreement for the provision of such services, unless ordered to do so by the court under this Act.

(7) Where an investigation has been completed in respect of a child who is an aboriginal child and a registered member of a band, the Director shall notify a designated representative of the band of the outcome of the investigation and whether an agreement for the provision of child protection services in respect of the child has been entered into with the parent of the child, or with the child, under this section.

Notice of investigation outcome of an aboriginal child

(8) Where an investigation has been completed in respect of a child and the Director believes that the child is an aboriginal child who is entitled to be registered as a member of a band, the Director shall give notice of the outcome of the investigation to a designated representative of the band that has been identified by

Identification of designated representative

- (a) the child if the child is 12 years old or older; or
 - (b) the parent of the child if the child is less than 12 years old.
- 2000(2nd),c.3,s.13; 2002,c.2,s.1; 2010,c.28,s.15.

14. Repealed by 2008,c.28,s.17. 2000(2nd),c.3,s.14; 2002,c.2,s.2; 2010,c.28,s.17.

Agreement for child protection services, with youth

15. (1) Where the Director has reasonable grounds to believe

- (a) that a child has been abandoned, or that the only parent of a child has died or is unavailable to take custody of the child; and
- (b) adequate provision has not been made for the care of the child,

the Director may assume temporary custody of the child for a period not exceeding 72 hours in order to locate a parent or other relative of the child who is willing and able to provide care for the child.

Abandoned child

(2) Nothing in this section precludes an apprehension of the child pursuant to section 23. 2000(2nd),c.3,s.15.

Apprehension not precluded

ALTERNATIVE APPROACHES

16. (1) Subject to the regulations, where the Director has determined that a child is in need of protection and no agreement has been made with the parent of the child respecting child protection services, the Director may initiate an alternative approach to developing a plan of care for the child.

Alternative approaches

(2) A plan of care developed as an alternative approach is subject to the approval of the Director.

Director's approval required

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, where a child is 12 years old or more, a plan of care shall not be effective unless

Child's views

- (a) the plan of care has been explained to the child in a manner appropriate to the child; and
 - (b) the Director has considered the views of the child.
- 2000(2nd),c.3,s.16; 2010,c.28,s.16(1)(a).

Time limits 17. (1) Subject to section 18, a plan of care made pursuant to section 16 shall not exceed 6 months in duration, but it may be renewed by the parties for not more than two additional 6 month periods.

Adjourn, withdraw application (2) Notwithstanding sections 36 and 37, where the Director has made an application pursuant to section 29 and the Director considers that an alternative approach may be successful, the Director may request an adjournment or withdraw the application. 2000(2nd),c.3,s.17.

CUSTODY AND GUARDIANSHIP BY AGREEMENT

Temporary Agreement 18. (1) Where, after an investigation, the Director determines that a child is in need of protection, the Director may enter into an agreement with a parent of the child whereby the parent transfers temporary custody and guardianship of the child to the Director.

Conditions required for an agreement (2) Before making an agreement pursuant to subsection (1), the Director may consider the opinions of other persons respecting the care of the child and the Director shall

- (a) consider the opinions and proposals for care of the child which a non-custodial parent may propose;
- (b) where a child is 12 years old or more, explain in a manner appropriate to the child, the reasons for and the nature, effect and implications of the proposed agreement to the child, and consider the views of the child; and
- (c) be satisfied that the agreement is in the best interests of the child.

Terms of agreement (3) An agreement made under this section shall include the following terms:

- (a) a transfer of temporary custody and guardianship of the child to the Director;
- (b) a plan of care for the child;
- (c) terms of access to the child by a parent or other person;
- (d) the duration of the agreement and its manner of termination;
- (e) the financial or other contributions to be made by the parent towards the care of the child; and
- (f) other terms as agreed.

More than one child (4) An agreement made pursuant to this section may apply to more than one child.

- (5) The initial term of an agreement made under this section shall not exceed
Term of agreement

- 2010,c.28,s.19

Termination notice
by party

19. (1) A party to an agreement made pursuant to section 18 may terminate it at any time by giving 15 days written notice to the other party.

Return of child

(2) Subject to subsection (3), where

- (a) an agreement is about to expire and is not renewed; or
- (b) notice of termination is given pursuant to subsection (1),

the Director shall, on or before the date of expiry or termination, return the child to the parent in whose custody the child was at the time the agreement was made.

Director opposes
return of child

(3) Where the Director has reasonable grounds to believe that the child would be in need of protection if returned pursuant to subsection (2), the Director shall apply, on or before the date of expiry or termination, for an order pursuant to section 29.

Custody pending hearing

(4) Unless the court otherwise orders temporary custody and guardianship of the child, as applicable, remains with the Director pending the interim hearing, where the Director makes an application in accordance with subsection (3). 2000(2nd),c.3,s.19; 2010,c.28,s.20.

Permanent surrender

20. (1) Where the Director determines after an assessment or an investigation that the parent of a child is unable or unwilling to provide for a child and presents no alternative plan, or the plan for the child is not acceptable to the Director, the parent may make an agreement with the Director for the permanent surrender to the Director of the custody and guardianship of the child.

More than one child

(2) An agreement pursuant to this section may apply to more than one child.

Considerations

(3) Before entering into an agreement with the parent of a child pursuant to this section, the Director shall

- (a) consider the opinions and proposals for the care of the child presented by a non-custodial parent;
- (b) explain to the child in a manner appropriate to the child, the reasons for and the nature and effect of the proposed agreement, and consider the views of the child;
- (c) cause further assessment to be made, where the child proposes an alternative;
- (d) cause further assessment to be made, where the child is over 12 years old and expresses opposition to the proposed agreement; and

(e) be satisfied that permanent surrender of custody and guardianship of the child is in the best interests of the child.

All guardians sign

(4) Unless the court otherwise orders, no agreement made pursuant to this section is valid unless all persons who have rights of guardianship respecting a child have signed it.

(5) No agreement may be made pursuant to this section unless the child who is the subject of the agreement is at least 14 days old at the time the agreement is executed. 2000(2nd),c.3,s.20.

Minimum age of child

21. (1) Subject to subsection (2), where an agreement is made pursuant to section 20, the rights and obligations of the parent of the child and all other guardianship rights with respect to the child are extinguished, and the Director has all rights to custody and guardianship of the child including the right to give or to withhold consent to the adoption of the child.

Parent's rights extinguished

(2) A parent of a child, who makes an agreement pursuant to section 20, may give written notice of termination of the agreement to the Director, not later than 14 days after signing the agreement.

Termination notice

(3) Where the Director receives a notice of termination pursuant to subsection (2), the Director shall, within 30 days,
 (a) return the child to the parent in whose custody the child was at the time of making the agreement; or
 (b) where the Director has reasonable grounds to believe that the child would be in need of protection if returned, apply for an order pursuant to section 29.

Return of child

(4) Unless the court otherwise orders, custody and guardianship of the child shall remain with the Director pending the hearing, where the Director applies for an order in accordance with clause (3)(b). 2000(2nd),c.3,s.21.

Custody in Director pending hearing

APPREHENSION OF A CHILD

23. (1) The Director may apprehend a child, without a warrant, where the Director has reasonable grounds to believe that

Apprehension of child

(a) a child is in need of protection; and
 (b) a less intrusive course of action will not adequately protect the health or safety of the child.

(1.1) Where the Director has reasonable grounds to believe that

Apprehension without warrant

- (a) a child is in need of protection; and
- (b) either
 - (i) the health or safety of the child is in immediate jeopardy; or
 - (ii) there is an immediate risk that the child or the child and the parent are about to leave the area, the Director may, without a warrant and regardless of the consent of any person, enter, by force if necessary, any premises where the child is believed to be present or to reside, and search for, locate and take the child into the custody of the Director.

Peace officer to assist

(2) A peace officer shall assist the Director in the apprehension of a child under this section, when the Director requests that assistance. 2000(2nd),c.3,s.23; 2002,c.2,s.3.

Warrant for child

24. (1) The court may, on the application of the Director without notice, grant a warrant to the Director where the court is satisfied that

- (a) there are reasonable grounds to believe that
 - (i) a child is in need of protection, and
 - (ii) a less intrusive course of action will not adequately protect the health or safety of the child;
- (b) the Director has attempted to apprehend a child pursuant to section 23; and
- (c) the parent of the child, or other person caring for the child, has refused to give up the child or to permit entry to the premises where the Director reasonably believes the child to be present or to reside.

Warrant in respect of child not born

(1.1) The court may, on the application of the Director without notice, grant a warrant to the Director, for execution immediately after the birth of a child, where the court is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds to believe that

- (a) the child will be a child in need of protection on its birth; and
- (b) a less intrusive course of action will not adequately protect the health or safety of the child.

Apprehension at birth of aboriginal child

(1.2) Where the Director plans to apprehend a child on its birth and the Director has reason to believe the child is an aboriginal child who will be entitled to be registered as a member of a band, the Director may notify the designated representative of the band of the Director's plan to apprehend the aboriginal child.

Identification of designated representative

(1.3) Where a parent of a child referred to in subsection (1.2)

- (a) is registered as a member of a band; or
- (b) is not registered as a member of a band and is believed by the Director to be an aboriginal person who is entitled to be registered as a member of a band, the Director shall notify the designated representative of the band that has been identified by the parent, of the Director's plan to apprehend the child under this section.

(2) A warrant issued pursuant to this section authorizes the Director or the Director assisted by a peace officer, regardless of the consent of any person, to

Authority of warrant

- (a) enter, by force if necessary, any premises where there are reasonable grounds to believe that the child is present or resides;
- (b) search those premises for the child; and
- (c) apprehend and take the child into custody.

(3) A warrant issued pursuant to this section may be transmitted to the Director by facsimile. 2000(2nd),c.3,s.24; 2002,c.2,s.4; 2010,c.28,s.21.
