
Contents

From the Editors	ix
Acknowledgements	xi
Foreword: Voices Discovering Each Other as They Rise From Canada's Fragmented Child Welfare System Nico Trocmé	xiii
Introduction: Development of the Prairie Child Welfare Consortium and This Book Sharon McKay	xv
1. Contextual and Cultural Aspects of Resilience in Child Welfare Settings Michael Ungar	1
2. Identity, Community, Resilience: The Transmission of Values Project Sharon McKay and Shelley Thomas Prokop	25
3. Reconciliation: Rebuilding the Canadian Child Welfare System to Better Serve Aboriginal Children and Youth Cindy Blackstock, Ivan Brown, and Marlyn Bennett	59
4. Here be Dragons! Breaking Down the Iron Cage for Aboriginal Children Jean Lafrance and Betty Bastien	89
5. The Journey of the Métis Settlements Child and Family Services Authority: Serving Alberta's Métis Settlement Children, Youth, and Families Shane R. Gauthier and Lillian Parenteau	115

6. Children with Disabilities Involved with the Child Welfare System in Manitoba: Current and Future Challenges	127
Don Fuchs, Linda Burnside, Shelagh Marchenski, and Andria Mudry
7. Supporting Aboriginal Children and Youth with Learning and Behavioural Disabilities in the Care of Aboriginal Child Welfare Agencies	147
Gwen Gosek, Alexandra Wright, and Diane Hiebert-Murphy
8. A Sacred Family Circle: A Family Group Conferencing Model	161
Gayle Desmeules
9. On the Matter of Cross-Cultural Aboriginal Adoptions	189
Kenn Richard
10. Aboriginal Children: Maintaining Connections in Adoption	203
Jeannine Carriere and Sandra Scarth
11. Creating Conditions for Good Practice: A Child Welfare Project Sponsored by the Canadian Association of Social Workers	223
Margot Herbert
Abstracts	251
Résumés	259
Contributors	267
Subject Index	277
Author Index	287