PART III PROTECTIVE INTERVENTION

Definition of child in need of protective intervention

- 10. (1) A child is in need of protective intervention where the child
- (a) is being, or is at risk of being, physically harmed by the action or lack of appropriate action by the child's parent;
 - (b) is being, or is at risk of being, sexually abused or exploited by the child's parent;
 - (c) is being, or is at risk of being, emotionally harmed by the parent's conduct and there are reasonable grounds to believe that the emotional harm suffered by the child, or that may be suffered by the child, results from the actions, failure to act or pattern of neglect on the part of the child's parent;
 - (d) is being, or is at risk of being, physically harmed by a person and the child's parent does not protect the child;
 - (e) is being, or is at risk of being, sexually abused or exploited by a person and the child's parent does not protect the child;
 - (f) is being, or is at risk of being, emotionally harmed by a person and the child's parent does not protect the child;
 - (g) is in the custody of a parent who refuses or fails to obtain or permit essential medical, psychiatric, surgical or remedial care or treatment to be given to the child when recommended by a qualified health practitioner;
 - (h) is abandoned;
 - (i) has no living parent and no adequate provision has been made for the child's care;
 - (j) has no parent available to care for the child and the parent has not made adequate provision for the child's care;
 - (k) has no parent able or willing to care for the child;
 - (l) is living in a situation where there is violence or is living in a situation where there is a risk of violence;
 - (m) is living with a parent whose actions show a propensity to violence or who has allegedly killed or seriously injured another person;
 - (n) has been left without adequate supervision appropriate to the child's developmental level; or
 - (o) is actually or apparently under 12 years of age and has
 - (i) allegedly killed or seriously injured another person or has caused serious damage to another person's property, or
 - (ii) on more than one occasion caused injury to another person or other living thing or threatened, either with or without weapons, to cause injury to another person or other living thing, either with the parent's encouragement or because the parent does not respond adequately to the situation.

(2) For the purposes of paragraphs (1)(c) and (f), the indicators of emotional harm exhibited or demonstrated by a child may include

- (a) depression;
- (b) significant anxiety;
- (c) significant withdrawal;
- (d) self-destructive behaviour;
- (e) aggressive behaviour; or
- (f) delayed development.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(c), parental conduct or living situations that may lead to emotional harm or risk of emotional harm to the child may include

- (a) rejection;
- (b) social deprivation;
- (c) deprivation of affection;
- (d) deprivation of cognitive stimulation;
- (e) subjecting the child to inappropriate criticism, threats, humiliation, accusations or expectations;
- (f) living in a situation where the mental or emotional health of a parent is negatively affecting the child;
- (g) living in a situation where a parent is an abuser of alcohol or drugs; or
- (h) living in a situation where there is violence.

Duty to report

11. (1) Where a person has information that a child is or may be in need of protective intervention, the person shall immediately report the information to a manager, social worker or a peace officer.

(2) Where a person makes a report under subsection (1), the person shall report all the information of which he or she has knowledge.

(3) Where a report is made to a peace officer under subsection (1), the peace officer shall, as soon as possible after receiving the report, inform a manager or social worker.

(4) This section applies, notwithstanding the provisions of another Act, to a person referred to in subsection (5) who, in the course of his or her professional duties, has information that a child is or may be in need of protective intervention.

(5) Subsection (4) applies to every person who performs professional or official duties with respect to a child, including

- (a) a health care professional;
- (b) a teacher, educational psychologist, guidance counsellor, school principal, social worker, family counsellor, member of the clergy or religious leader, operator or employee of a child care service, a youth worker and a recreation worker;
- (c) a peace officer; and
- (d) a solicitor.

(6) This section applies notwithstanding that the information is confidential or privileged, and an action does not lie against the informant unless the making of the report is done maliciously or without reasonable cause.

(7) A person shall not interfere with or harass a person who gives information under this section.

(8) A person who contravenes this section is guilty of an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding $10,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months, or to both a fine and imprisonment.

(9) Notwithstanding section 7 of the Provincial Offences Act, an information or complaint under this section may be laid or made within 3 years from the day when the matter of the information or complaint arose.

2010 cC-12.2 s11

Back to Top

Determining the need for protective intervention

12. (1) Where a manager or social worker receives information in the form of

- (a) a request for protective intervention services;
- (b) a report under section 11 ; or
- (c) other evidence that a child may be in need of protective intervention, the manager or social worker shall investigate whether the child is in need of protective intervention unless, upon assessment, the manager or social worker is satisfied that the information provided was without merit or without reasonable grounds.

(2) Where, after an investigation referred to in subsection (1), the manager or social worker has determined that the child is in need of protective intervention, the manager or social worker shall

- (a) enter into a written agreement with the parent outlining the plan for the child and the child's parent with respect to the required services; or
- (b) where the manager or social worker is not satisfied that the child's need for protective intervention can be met under paragraph (a), take whatever action under this Act that the manager or social worker considers appropriate.

(3) Where,

- (a) upon assessing information received under subsection (1), a manager or social worker is satisfied that the information provided was without merit or without reasonable grounds;
or
- (b) after an investigation referred to in subsection (1), a manager or social worker has determined that the child is not in need of protective intervention, the manager or social worker may, where appropriate, refer the child or the child's parent to health care, social, legal or other services which may assist the child or the child's parent and may, in exceptional circumstances, enter into a written agreement outlining the plan for the child and the child's parent with respect to the required services.

(4) An agreement under this section shall set out the responsibilities of each party to the agreement.

2010 cC-12.2 s12

Back to Top

Family group conference and alternate dispute resolution

13. (1) A manager or social worker may use a family group conference, mediation or another form of alternate dispute resolution to establish, replace or amend the plan referred to in section 12 .

(2) Where a family group conference, mediation or another form of alternate dispute resolution is agreed upon, the parties shall enter into a written agreement to participate in the process.

(3) An issue with respect to a plan referred to in section 12 may be included in a family group conference, mediation or another form of alternate dispute resolution, other than the determination by a manager or social worker that the child is in need of protective intervention and the factors that led to that determination.

2010 cC-12.2 s13

Back to Top

Interview of child

14. (1) A person, who has custody of or who is entrusted with the care of a child who is the subject of an investigation under this Act, shall, when requested to do so by a manager or a social worker,

- (a) identify the child; and
 - (b) permit the child to be visited, observed and interviewed by a manager or social worker, in private where in the opinion of the manager or social worker it is appropriate, at a place where the child is located.
- (2) A manager or social worker shall notify the parent of the interview.

2010 cC-12.2 s14

Back to Top

Manager denied access to child

15. (1) Where a manager or social worker is denied access to a child and he or she believes that access to the child is necessary to determine if the child is in need of protective intervention, the manager or social worker may, without notice, apply to a judge for an order and the judge may grant an order

- (a) that a person disclose the location of the child;
- (b) that a person permit the manager or social worker or another person to interview or visually examine the child;
- (c) authorizing the manager or social worker to remove the child from the place where the child is located for an interview or medical examination; and
- (d) authorizing a qualified health practitioner to examine the child.

(2) The judge may attach those conditions to an order under this section that the judge considers appropriate.

(3) Where a child is removed from the place where the child was located for an interview or medical examination, a manager or social worker shall return the child to the parent or other person from whom the child was removed unless the manager or social worker proceeds under section 20 .

(4) At the request of a manager or social worker, a peace officer shall assist in enforcing an order made under subsection (1).

2010 cC-12.2 s15

Back to Top

Location of child not disclosed

16. (1) Where a person does not comply with an order under section 15 , a judge may issue a warrant for the person's arrest to bring him or her before the judge to explain why the order should not be enforced.

(2) Where a person referred to in subsection (1) appears before a judge and the judge believes that the person's reasons for being unable or unwilling to comply with the order are not valid, the judge may order that the person be imprisoned for 30 days or until the person complies with the order, whichever is the shorter period of time.

2010 cC-12.2 s16

Back to Top

Order to produce record

17. (1) Where a manager or social worker files an application with the court, a judge may order a person to produce information that is written, photographed, recorded or stored by other means for inspection by the manager or social worker where

- (a) there are reasonable grounds to believe that the information is necessary for determining whether a child is in need of protective intervention;
- (b) there are reasonable grounds to believe that the person has possession or control of the information; and
- (c) the person has neglected or refused, upon request of the manager or social worker, to produce the information.

(2) Not later than 2 days before the date set for hearing an application under subsection (1), notice of the date, time and place of the hearing shall be served on the person against whom the order is sought.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), where a manager or social worker believes on reasonable grounds that the information may be destroyed if notice is given, application may be made under subsection (1) without notice.

2010 cC-12.2 s17

Back to Top

Order to prohibit contact

18. (1) Where there are reasonable grounds to believe that contact between a child and another person would cause the child to be in need of protective intervention, a manager or social worker may file an application with the court for an order to prohibit contact between the child and that person.

(2) The date set for hearing the application under subsection (1) shall be not later than 2 days after the application is filed, and notice of the hearing shall be served on the day the application is filed.

(3) Notice of the date, time and place of the hearing shall be served on

(a) the person against whom the order is sought;

(b) a parent of the child; and

(c) the child, where the child is 12 years of age or over.

(4) Where a judge is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds to believe that contact between a child and a person named in an application under subsection (1) would cause the child to be in need of protective intervention, the judge may do one or more of the following:

(a) prohibit the person against whom the order is sought from contacting or interfering with, or trying to contact or interfere with, the child, or from entering a place where the child is located, for a period of up to 6 months;

(b) prohibit the person against whom the order is sought from residing with the child, or entering premises where the child resides, including premises that the person owns or has a right to occupy, for a period of up to 6 months; and

(c) impose those conditions that the judge considers appropriate for implementing the order and protecting the child.

(5) Before an order to prohibit contact between a child and another person expires, a manager, social worker or person named in the order may file an application with the court and the judge may

(a) grant another order;

(b) vary the order; or

(c) rescind the order.

(6) At the request of a manager or social worker, a peace officer shall assist in enforcing an order made under this section.

(7) An order under this section may be made at any time, including before, during or after another hearing.

2010 cC-12.2 s18

Back to Top

Short term care in the home

19. (1) Where a manager or social worker believes a child is without adequate supervision when premises are entered under this Act, the manager or social worker may arrange for short term care in the home to be provided until other supervision considered adequate by the manager or social worker is available for the child, but the period of care shall not exceed 72 hours.

(2) Where short term care is provided under subsection (1), a person approved by the manager or social worker may enter the premises where the child is located and care for the child.

(3) A manager or social worker shall make all reasonable efforts to notify a parent of a child of an action taken by the manager or social worker under this section.

2010 cC-12.2 s19

Back to Top

Removal of child

20. (1) Where a manager or social worker believes

(a) that a child is in need of protective intervention; and

(b) a less intrusive course of action that would adequately protect the child is not available, he or she shall file an application with the court for a warrant to remove a child.

(2) Where satisfied on the basis of a manager's or social worker's sworn information that there are reasonable grounds to believe that

(a) a child is in need of protective intervention; and

(b) a less intrusive course of action that would adequately protect the child is not available,

a judge may issue a warrant authorizing the manager or social worker to enter a premises or vehicle or board a vessel or aircraft, by force if necessary, to remove a child.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (1), where a manager or social worker has reasonable grounds to believe there would be an immediate risk to the child's health and safety if no action were taken during the time required to obtain a warrant, the manager or social worker may enter a premises or vehicle or board a vessel or aircraft, by force if necessary, to remove a child without a warrant.

(4) At the request of a manager or social worker, a peace officer shall assist in enforcing a warrant issued under subsection (2), or if a warrant is not obtained, the peace officer shall assist a manager or social worker under subsection (3).

(5) A warrant issued under subsection (2) need not describe the child by name or specify a particular premises.

- (6) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a warrant is not required for the removal of a child where
- (a) the child is in the care of a manager under an agreement between a manager and a parent of the child entered into under section 12 , and the agreement expires or is about to expire or is repudiated or is about to be repudiated by the parent, and a manager or social worker believes the child is in need of protective intervention; or
 - (b) a parent of a child voluntarily places the child in the care of a manager but refuses to enter into an agreement under section 12 .

2010 cC-12.2 s20

Back to Top

Removal of youth

21. (1) Where a manager or social worker determines that

- (a) a youth is in need of protective intervention as defined in section 10 ;
- (b) a less intrusive course of action that will adequately protect the youth is not available; and
- (c) the youth is unable to protect himself or herself due to a lack of mental capacity, the manager or social worker may remove the youth.

(2) Where a youth is removed under this section, the provisions of this Act that apply to determining the need for protective intervention and the removal of a child, except section 33 , apply as if that youth were a child.

2010 cC-12.2 s21

Back to Top

Telewarrants

22. (1) Where, in the opinion of a manager or social worker it would not be practical to appear in person before a judge to apply for a warrant, the manager or social worker may make the application by telephone or other means of telecommunication.

(2) Where a manager or social worker removes a child under the authority of a warrant obtained under this section, the manager or social worker shall provide the person from whom the child is removed with a facsimile of the warrant.

(3) In subsection (2), "facsimile" includes a record produced by electronic means or a written record of a telephone conversation made by both parties to the conversation while it is in progress and which the parties have confirmed as to its accuracy by reading their record of the conversation to one another at the end of the conversation.

Back to Top

Notice of removal of child

23. (1) Where a child is removed, with or without a warrant, from the care of a parent or other person, a manager or social worker shall serve written notice of the removal on the parent, and the child, where the child is 12 years of age or over, within 24 hours after the removal stating the reason why the child was removed.

(2) A parent who is given a notice under subsection (1) shall be informed that he or she may be represented by legal counsel.

2010 cC-12.2 s23

Back to Top

Interim care of child after removal

24. (1) Where a child is removed under section 20 , a manager has interim care of the child until

- (a) the child is returned under section 45 to the parent from whom the child was removed; or
- (b) a judge makes an order at a presentation hearing under section 31 .

(2) While the manager has interim care of the child, the manager or a social worker may

- (a) authorize a qualified health practitioner to examine the child; and
- (b) consent to necessary health care for the child where the parent cannot be contacted if, in the opinion of a qualified health practitioner, the health care should be provided without delay.

(3) On consenting to necessary health care for the child, a manager or social worker shall notify the parent from whom the child was removed.

(4) Where a child is removed, while hospitalized, from his or her parent by a manager or social worker, the hospital administration and the attending physician shall be advised that the child has been removed from the parent and that the manager has interim care of the child.

25. (1) Where a manager or social worker believes on reasonable grounds that

- (a) a child is in need of protective intervention;
- (b) the child's safety could be assured without removing the child with the provision of protective intervention services; and
- (c) a parent of the child is unwilling to accept protective intervention services for the child, the manager or social worker shall file an application with the court for a protective intervention hearing and an order that the child is in need of protective intervention.

(2) A hearing under this section shall be held within 30 days of the filing of the application under subsection (1).

(3) Notice of the time and place of a hearing under this section shall be served not later than

3 days after the date for the hearing is obtained on

- (a) a parent of the child; and
- (b) the child, where the child is 12 years of age or older.

(4) When a parent of the child is served with a notice under subsection (3), that parent shall also be served with a copy of the application.

(5) Where an application is made under this section, a judge may make an order under section 32 .

Notice of hearings where child removed

27. (1) Where a child has been removed and a manager or social worker applies for a protective intervention hearing, he or she shall at the same time be given a date for a presentation hearing, which shall be held not later than 10 days after the date on which the application is filed.

(2) Notice of the time and place of a protective intervention hearing and a presentation hearing shall be served not later than 3 days after the dates for the hearings are obtained on

- (a) a parent of the child; and
- (b) the child, where the child is 12 years of age or over.

(3) When a parent of the child is served with a notice under subsection (2), that parent shall also be served with

- (a) a copy of the application;
- (b) a written report of the circumstances that led to the removal of the child; and
- (c) the manager or social worker's plan for the child until the protective intervention hearing.

Plan for the child

29. (1) A manager or social worker shall file with the court, not later than noon on the day before the presentation hearing or a hearing referred to in section 25 is scheduled, a plan for the child and provide a copy to those persons who have been served with a copy of the application.

(2) A person who has received a plan under subsection (1) may respond to the plan by filing an alternate plan with the court and, in that case, shall provide a copy of that alternate plan to the manager or the social worker.

(3) A plan filed under subsection (1) shall include

- (a) a description of the services required to address the situation or issues on the basis of which the child was determined to be in need of protective intervention;
- (b) a description of the indicators by which the manager or social worker will determine when custody or supervision may no longer be required;
- (c) an estimate of the time required to achieve the purpose of the intervention;
- (d) information respecting previous involvement with the child, or a parent of the child, under this or a predecessor Act, that is relevant to the plan;
- (e) where the child has been removed from a parent's care,
 - (i) an explanation of why the child cannot be adequately protected while in the parent's care, and a description of past efforts to do so,
 - (ii) an explanation of the efforts planned to maintain the child's contact with the parent, family or other person significant to the child, and
 - (iii) a description of the arrangements made or being made to recognize the importance of the child's identity and cultural and community connections; and
- (f) where the manager or social worker proposes to remove the child from a parent's care permanently, a description of the arrangements made or being made for the child's stability and permanency.

(4) A revised plan may be filed before the conclusion of the protective intervention hearing.

Order for medical treatment

30. (1) Where a manager or social worker believes a child is in need of protective intervention because of his or her parent's refusal or failure to obtain or permit essential medical, psychiatric, surgical or remedial treatment that is recommended for the child by a qualified health practitioner, the manager or social worker may file an application with the court for an order authorizing the treatment.

(2) A parent of a child, and the child, where he or she is 12 years of age or over, shall be served with notice of the time and place of a hearing under this section which shall be held within one day after filing the application.

(3) A judge may

- (a) hear the application at any time or place;
- (b) receive evidence by telephone or other means of telecommunication; and
- (c) administer an oath or affirmation by telephone or other means of telecommunication.

(4) Where a judge finds that a child is in need of protective intervention for a reason referred to in subsection (1), the judge may so declare and grant an order authorizing the treatment recommended by a qualified health practitioner.

(5) Where a child's treatment is authorized by an order under this section, no liability attaches to the person treating the child by reason only that the parent of the child did not consent to the treatment.

Presentation hearing

31. (1) A presentation hearing

- (a) may be conducted by a judge in an informal manner; and
 - (b) shall be concluded within one day, unless extended by the judge.
- (2) At the conclusion of a presentation hearing, a judge may
- (a) dismiss the application for a protective intervention hearing;
 - (b) order that the child be returned to or remain with the parent under the supervision of a manager or social worker until the conclusion of the protective intervention hearing;
 - (c) order that the child be placed in the custody of a parent, other than the parent from whom the child was removed, under the supervision of a manager until the conclusion of the protective intervention hearing;
 - (d) order that the child be placed in the care of the child's family or a person significant to the child, other than the parent from whom the child was removed, under the supervision of a manager until the conclusion of the protective intervention hearing;
 - (e) order that the child be placed in or remain in the custody of a manager until the conclusion of the protective intervention hearing; or
 - (f) make a declaration that the child is in need of protective intervention and make an order under subsection 32 (2).

(3) Where a judge makes an order under subsection (2) that is not an order for continuous custody, the judge may attach reasonable conditions to that order, including conditions with respect to

- (a) the child's contact with a parent, unless the judge is satisfied that continued contact with the parent would not be in the best interests of the child;

(b) the child's contact with a person significant to the child; and

(c) the assessment, treatment or services to be obtained by the child or the child's parent

but an order shall not contain conditions with respect to the type or the geographic location of the placement for the child.

Protective intervention hearing

32. (1) At a protective intervention hearing, a judge shall determine whether a child is in need of protective intervention.

(2) Where a judge finds that a child is in need of protective intervention, the judge shall so declare and order that

(a) the child be returned to or remain with the parent and under a manager's supervision for a specified period of up to 6 months;

(b) the child be placed in the temporary custody of the child's family or a person significant to the child, other than the parent from whom the child was removed, with the consent of that person and under a manager's supervision, for a specified period in accordance with section 33 ;

(c) the child be placed in the temporary custody of a manager for a specified period in accordance with section 33 ; or

(d) the child be placed in the continuous custody of a manager.

(3) Where a judge makes an order for supervision under paragraphs (2)(a) or (b), and a person fails to comply with a specific condition of the order, the manager or social worker may make an application to the court and the date set for the hearing shall not be later than 5 days after the application is made, and notice of the hearing shall be served on the day the application is filed.

(4) Where a judge makes an order for temporary custody under paragraph (2)(b), the judge may grant a parent or a person significant to the child contact with the child.

(5) Where a judge makes an order for temporary custody under paragraph (2)(c), the judge may attach reasonable conditions to that order, including conditions with respect to

(a) the child's contact with a parent, unless the judge is satisfied that continued contact with the parent would not be in the best interests of the child;

(b) the child's contact with a person significant to the child; and

(c) the assessment, treatment or services to be obtained by the child or the child's parent, but an order shall not contain conditions with respect to the type or the geographical location of the placement for the child.

(6) Where a judge makes an order for continuous custody under paragraph (2)(d),

- (a) the order shall not contain conditions; and
- (b) the manager has custody of the child and has all the rights and responsibilities of a parent for the child's care and future planning.

(7) Where the judge finds that the child is not in need of protective intervention, the judge shall so declare and shall make an order that the child remain with or be returned to the parent from whom the child was removed and the order shall not contain conditions.

Time limits for temporary custody orders

33. (1) Where a judge grants an order for temporary custody under paragraph 32 (2)(b) or (c), the term of the order shall not exceed

- (a) 6 months for a first order;
- (b) 3 months for a second order where the child who is the subject of the order is under 6 years of age when that order is made; and
- (c) 6 months for a second order where the child who is the subject of the order is 6 years of age or over when that order is made with a maximum of 2 orders in total during the child's life.

- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a third order may be granted where
 - (a) there are exceptional circumstances that in the opinion of the judge warrant exceeding the lifetime maximum of 2 orders; and
 - (b) the parent has demonstrated that he or she may reasonably be expected to resume the custody of the child within a reasonable period, but the term of a third order shall not exceed

- (c) 3 months where the child is under 6 years of age when that order is made; or
- (d) 6 months where the child is 6 years of age or over when that order is made.

Effect of temporary custody order

- 38. Where an order for temporary custody is made under paragraph 32 (2)(c)
- (a) the manager has custody of the child for the specified period and the manager or a social worker has the right to make all decisions regarding the child during the specified period;
 - (b) the manager or a social worker may consent to necessary medical treatment for the child as recommended by a qualified health practitioner, where the child's parent is unavailable or refuses to consent to the treatment; and
 - (c) the manager shall not consent to an adoption of the child under the Adoption Act without the consent of the parent from whom the child was removed.

2010 cC-12.2 s38

Back to Top

Effect of continuous custody order

- 39. (1) Where an order for continuous custody is made under paragraph 32 (2)(d),
- (a) the manager becomes the sole custodian of the child and has the right to make all decisions regarding the child;
 - (b) the manager or a social worker may consent to the provision of medical treatment for the child; and
 - (c) the manager may consent to the adoption of the child under the Adoption Act.
- (2) An order for continuous custody of a child does not affect the child's rights respecting inheritance or succession to property.
- (3) At least 30 days before consenting to the adoption of the child under the Adoption Act, the manager or a social worker shall inform a person who, under subsection 31 (3) or subsection 32 (4) or (5), has been permitted contact with the child, of the manager's intention to consent to the adoption.
- (4) An application for custody of or access to a child under the Children's Law Act shall not be made with respect to a child who is the subject of a continuous custody order made under this Act.

When continuous custody order ceases to have effect

41. (1) An order for continuous custody ceases to have effect when

- (a) the youth reaches 18 years of age;
- (b) the youth marries;
- (c) custody of the child or youth is transferred to another person, other than to another manager under section 43 ;
- (d) the youth makes a written request to the manager to have the order set aside; or
- (e) the court rescinds the order.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1)(d), an order for continuous custody does not cease to have effect where the manager determines that the youth lacks the mental capacity to understand and appreciate the consequences of the request and the manager advises the youth that the order for continuous custody shall remain in place.

Rescinding continuous custody order

42. (1) With the leave of a judge, and where

- (a) the circumstances have changed significantly since the time an order for continuous custody was made; and
- (b) the child or youth has not been placed for adoption, a party to a hearing at which the order was made may file an application with the court for the rescission of the order.

(2) Where a judge grants leave under subsection (1), notice of an application for a hearing shall be served not later than 10 days before the hearing on

- (a) the manager concerned;
- (b) a parent of the child;
- (c) a child, where the child is 12 years of age or over; and
- (d) another party to the continuous custody application.

(3) The judge may grant an order to rescind an order for continuous custody where he or she believes it is in the best interests of the child to do so.
